NARRATIVE:

Lewis Martin is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include multiple robberies, vehicle theft, theft, grand theft property, burglary, use of PCP, trespassing, possession of narcotic controlled substances, transportation of controlled substances for sale, petty theft with prior and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest being a ten year term for robbery. Martin was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 23, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Martin qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for transportation of controlled substances for sale is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
